Pittsburgh, PA USA — A new Corporate Pricing Agreement, effective October 1, 2007, establishes a contract vehicle and price agreement for Lockheed Martin business units purchasing Formtek products and services.

Lockheed Martin Corporation has long been a customer of Formtek, with over 10,000 users of Formtek's Technical Document Management software suite in use throughout various Lockheed Martin business units today. The new Corporate Pricing Agreement replaces a previous Agreement that was originally established in February 1992.

"As a veteran of the document management industry, Formtek has been providing mission-critical technical document management products and services to some of the most demanding and sophisticated Aerospace & Defense organizations in the world. Our products are in use today on a number of Lockheed Martin programs including F-16, F-22, C-130J and THAAD", said Dennis M. Scanlon, President & COO, Formtek. "This new contract vehicle provides our Lockheed Martin customers with uninterrupted supplier readiness to support their continuously evolving requirements."

About Lockheed Martin Corporation. Headquartered in Bethesda, MD., Lockheed Martin employs about 140,000 people worldwide and is principally engaged in the research, design, development, manufacture, integration and sustainment of advanced technology systems, products and services.
